

Term 2 Group Programs

Positive Pathways

For our teens who need a space to meet with peers their age and work through social complexities that have occurred in their friendship environments. This group aims to assist participants to brainstorm ideas, generate solutions and practice core skills to develop their everchanging social world.

Age: 12-14 years

Cost: $156.26 per session

Venue:

Early Start Australia,
Oakleigh

Time: 4.15-5.15pm Monday
Commencing 28/04/2025

Funding:

Private or NDIS allocation

This group program aims to bring together preteens and teens to provide a safe space for them to develop their organizational, social and wellbeing skills.

Participants will:

- Build skills for meaningful friendships by engaging in social conversations, identifying shared interests, and boundaries.
- Develop conflict resolution skills by learning respectful techniques for handling disagreements.
- Enhance teamwork and organizational skills through participation in group projects that require cooperation and problem-solving.
